This Policy shall deem to have become effective from 03rd July, 2017.

4. Policy

Except as otherwise provided in this Policy, all Related Party Transactions shall be reported to & placed for approval of Managing Director & CFO and prior approval of Audit Committee is required in accordance with this Policy.

A related party transaction to which the subsidiary of a listed entity is a party but the listed entity is not a party, shall require prior approval of the audit committee of the listed entity if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds ten per cent of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary

4.1 Identification of Material Related Party Transactions

- a. The Company shall at all times maintain a database of Company's Related Parties containing the names of individuals and Companies in accordance with this Policy, along with their personal/company details including any revisions therein.
- b. The Related Party List shall be updated whenever necessary and shall be reviewed quarterly.
- c. The Company Secretary shall collate the information, coordinate and send the Related Party List to the concerned employees viz. Managing Director, Chief Executive Office, Whole Time, Chief Financial Officer, Functional Heads, Branch Heads, the Finance & Accounts Department and who he/she believes might be in the position to know the possible conduct of RPTs.

- d. The concerned employees shall submit to the Company Secretary the details of proposed transaction with details/draft contract/ draft agreement or other supporting documents justifying that the transactions are on arms' length basis in an ordinary course of business at prevailing market rate.
- e. Based on this note, Company Secretary shall appropriately take up for necessary prior approvals from the Audit Committee at its next meeting and convey back the decision to the originator.
- f. Each Director/Key Managerial Personnel shall be responsible for providing written notice to the Company Secretary of any potential RPT involving him or her or his or her Relatives, including any additional information about the transaction that the Company Secretary may reasonably request. The Company Secretary shall, in consultation with other members of senior management and with the Audit Committee, as appropriate, determine whether the transaction does, in fact, constitute a RPT requiring compliance with this Policy.
- g. Where any director/ Key Managerial Personnel, who is not so concerned or interested at the time of entering into such contract or arrangement, he or she shall, if he becomes concerned or interested after the contract or arrangement is entered into, disclose his concern or interest forthwith when he or she becomes concerned or interested at the first meeting of Board held after he or she becomes concerned or interested.
- h. A contract or arrangement entered into by the Company without disclosure or with participation by a Director/ Key Managerial Personnel who is concerned or interested in any way, directly or indirectly, in the contract or arrangement, shall be voidable at the option of the Company.
- i. The Company strongly prefers to receive such notice of any potential RPT well in advance so that the Company Secretary has adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed transaction and other matter incidental thereto and to refer it to the appropriate approval authority. Ratification of RTP after its commencement or even its completion may be appropriate in some circumstances.

4.2 Related Party Transactions that shall not require Approval

Following transactions shall not require separate approval under this policy:

- Any transaction pertaining to appointment and remuneration of Directors and KMPs that has already been approved by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Company or the Board;
- Transactions that have been approved by the Board under the specific provisions of the Companies Act, e.g. inter-corporate deposits, borrowings, investments with or in wholly owned subsidiaries or other Related Parties;
- Payment of Dividend;

- Transactions involving corporate restructuring, such as buy-back of shares, capital reduction, merger, demerger, hive-off, approved by the Board and carried out in accordance with the specific provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 or the Equity Listing Agreement;

Material Related Party Transaction

- All Material Related Party Transactions shall be placed for prior approval of shareholders through Special Resolution. However, the Material Related Party Transactions entered between Trident Texofab Limited and its wholly owned subsidiaries, if any, shall not require prior approval of shareholders.
- A transaction with a Related Party shall be considered Material if the transaction / transactions to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year exceed ten percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company.

Omnibus approval

Unless otherwise stated in this policy, all Related Party Transactions subsequent material modifications require prior approval of the Audit Committee of the Company.

The Audit Committee, at its meeting, shall grant omnibus approval to Related Party Transactions that are:

- a. repetitive in nature; and/or
- b. entered in the ordinary course of business and are at Arm's Length. The expression Arm's Length has the meaning ascribed to it under Section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013.

The Audit Committee shall periodically change the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with the policy on RPTs of the company and such approval shall be applicable in respect of transactions which are repetitive in nature.

The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the company;

Such omnibus approval shall specify the following:

- i. the name(s) of the related party
- ii. nature of transaction,
- iii. period of transaction,
- iv. maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into,
- v. the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and;

vi. such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit;

Provided that where the need for RPT cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rs.1 crore per transaction.

Audit Committee shall review, atleast on a quarterly basis, the details of RPTs entered into by the company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given.

Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of one year.

4.3 Standards for Review

A RPT reviewed under this Policy will be considered approved or ratified if it is authorised by the Audit Committee or the Board or the shareholders in the General Meeting, as applicable, in accordance with the standards set-forth in this Policy after full disclosure of the Related Party's interests in the transaction. As appropriate for the circumstances, the Audit Committee or Board, as applicable, shall review and consider:

- the Related Party's interest in the RPT;
- the amount involved in the RPT;
- whether the RPT was undertaken in the ordinary course of business of the Company;
- whether the transaction with the Related Party is proposed to be, or was, entered on an arms' length basis;
- the purpose of and the potential benefits to the Company from the RPT;
- Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter in to the RPT and the nature of alternative transaction, if any;
- Whether the RPT includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the RPT.
- Whether the Company was notified about the RPT before its commencement and if not, why pre-approval was not sought and whether subsequent ratification would be detrimental to the Company;
- Required public disclosure, if any; and
- Any other information regarding the RPT or the Related Party in the context of the proposed transaction that would be material to the Audit Committee/Board/shareholders, as applicable in light of the circumstances of the particular Transaction.

Disclosures & Reporting

- This Policy shall be disclosed on the website of the Company.
- The details of Related Party Transactions shall be disclosed in the Annual report of the Company, the Stock Exchanges and other regulatory bodies as per the provisions of applicable accounting standards, the Act, Listing Regulations or any other applicable laws and regulations.

5. Amendments to the Policy

- The Board of Directors on its own and / or as per the recommendations of Audit Committee can amend this Policy, as and when deemed fit. Any or all provisions of this Policy would be subject to revision /amendment in accordance with the Rules, Regulations, Notifications etc. on the subject as may be issued by relevant statutory authorities, from time to time.
- In case of any amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. issued by the relevant authorities, not being consistent with the provisions laid down under this Policy, then such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. shall prevail upon the provisions hereunder and this Policy shall stand amended accordingly from the effective date as laid down under such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc.

(The amendment to this Policy has been adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company based on recommendations of the Audit Committee and shall be effective from 30th May, 2026.)
